

Faculty Hiring Steps

STEPS IN FILLING FULL-TIME FACULTY POSITIONS

(Note: Most forms and documents mentioned in these instructions are linked to the Office of the Provost website under the heading Faculty Recruitment Guidelines and Forms).

1. The Provost will invite staffing requests by August 15th each year and provide the relevant request information that is needed. All faculty vacancies will be reviewed by the Educational Policies Committee and the Provost in consultation with the President.

2. After the request is approved, c Vacancy through SignNow on the HR website. On the Faculty Vacancy Request form the chair must include at least one site that targets potential candidates of under-represented groups. The Vacancy Request form also allows for the chair to suggest discipline-specific sites.

The Executive Assistant will send a job ad template along with any recent job ads from prior searches to the chair with required information already included. The job ad must be sent electronically to the Provost and Executive Assistant for review/approval.

Each job ad must include these statements:

The successful candidate will demonstrate support for diversity, equity and inclusiveness as well as participate in maintaining a respectful, positive work environment. Please see our notice of nondiscrimination housed on our website.

Wittenberg University is committed to preventing and addressing sexual misconduct in our campus community. Click here to view our Title IX policies.

3. After the Provost, President, Budget Office, Vice President for Finance & Administration, and Director of Human Resources have approved the Faculty Vacancy Request form, Human Resources will place the ad in relevant general publications, Internet sites and on sites identified in #2 as approved by the
