
Check each of the items you feel may have contributed to your present academic situation
Have any course problems made learning difficult for you?

Are there personal issues that may have interfered with your performance?

Have any of the following institutional factors made learning difficult for you?

Has your approach to studying hindered your academic progress?

Are there other factors that might be making learning difficult?

